novels but last year i stopped believing in love right now i feel like the unhappiest person on earth i am standing in the most famous cemetery in paris and believe it or not something wonderful is going to happen but i m getting ahead of myself we should start first of all with my letters to my beloved helen i presume you know my wife helen before she died she made me promise to write her thirty three letters one for every year of her life so grab your coat follow me down the narrow streets past the cosy red bistro on rue gabrielle all the way to montmartre cemetery with its beautiful stone angels together let us read the love letters in this brilliant and profoundly moving collection of farewell letters written by servicemen and women to their loved ones siân price offers a remarkable insight into the hearts and minds of some of the soldiers sailors and airmen of the past three hundred years each letter provides an enduring snapshot of an impossible moment in time when an individual stares death squarely in the face some were written or dictated as the person lay mortally wounded many were written on the eve of a great charge or battle others were written by soldiers who experienced premonitions of their death or by kamikaze pilots and condemned prisoners they write of the grim realities of battle of daily hardships of unquestioning patriotism or bitter regrets of religious fervor or political disillusionment of unrelenting optimism or sinking morale and above all they write of their love for their family and the desire to return to them one day be it an epitaph dictated on a napoleonic battlefield a staunch unsentimental letter written by a victorian officer or an email from a soldier in modern day afghanistan these voices speak eloquently and forcefully of the tragedy of war and answer that fundamental human need to say goodbye write now read later treasure forever letters to me when i grow up will inspire children to write or draw stories
